

June 1997 § No. 1R

Selected National Organizations

American Academy of Pediatrics
Publications Department
P. O. Box 927
Elk Grove, IL 60009-0927
☎ 800-433-9016 or 708-228-5005
FAX 708-228-5097

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Committee on Accident and Poison Prevention published "All-Terrain Vehicles: Two-, Three-, and Four-Wheeled Unlicensed Motor Vehicles" in Pediatrics, Volume 79, No. 2, pages 306-308, February 1987. Included is a copy of the AAP statement and "All-Terrain Vehicle Regulation Act (reprinted with permission). Additional copies may be obtained by contacting the AAP.

Children's Safety Network (CSN)
Rural Injury Prevention Resource Center
National Farm Medicine Center
1000 North Oak Avenue
Marshfield, WI 54449-5790
☎ 715-389-4999 FAX 715-389-4950

The CSN Rural Injury Prevention Resource Center offers additional information on ATV-related injuries to children along with information on other rural childhood injury prevention issues. The resource center is a Maternal and Child Health Bureau funded project. The National Farm Medicine Center is a department of the Marshfield Medical Research Foundation, a division of Marshfield Clinic.

Consumer Product Safety Commission
(CPSC)
National Injury Information
Clearinghouse
Room 625, 5401 Westbard Avenue
Washington, DC 20207
☎ 800-638-2772

The CPSC is an independent regulatory agency of the federal government. The CPSC is involved in a variety of hazard assessment and reduction programs to prevent injuries. Injury data is collected through the National Electronic Injury Surveillance System (NEISS).

National 4-H Council
4-H Community ATV Safety Program
7100 Connecticut Avenue
Chevy Chase, MD 20815-4999
☎ 301-961-2913 FAX 301-961-2894

The 4-H Community ATV Safety Program is a collaborative effort of public agencies, community organizations, and private businesses. The purpose of the program is to address behaviors of young people which have been determined to increase their risk of ATV-related injuries and fatalities. The program offers a newsletter, curriculum and leadership on the issue of ATV youth safety. A complimentary copy of "Safety Tips for the ATV Rider" is provided in this packet.

National Off-Highway Vehicle
Conservation Council, Inc. (NOHVCC)
1020 Superior Ave.
Sheboygan, WI 53081-6749
☎ 800-348-OHVS (6487)
Fax 414-458-3666

The NOHVCC provides an on-going forum for off-highway enthusiasts, organizations, and supporters to share information and experiences. Activities include developing partnerships, addressing environmental concerns, and investing in youth through education. Additional information, educational materials, and publications are available.

The Ohio State University
Department of Agricultural Engineering
Extension Safety and Health
590 Woody Hayes Drive
Columbus, OH 43210-1057
☎ 614-292-6519 FAX 614-292-9448

OSU offers several resources that include a newly developed volunteer guide and "ATV Safety on the Farm" videotape. The videotape offers a concise overview of ATV safety basics for both farm operators and employees. This videotape is available through Extension Safety and Health.

Outdoor Empire Publishing Company, Inc.
511 Eastlake Avenue East
Seattle, WA 98109
☎ 800-645-5489 Fax 206-340-9816

Numerous ATV safety educational products, including student safety training manuals targeted to your state are provided and available.

Specialty Vehicle Institute of America
(SVIA)
ATV Safety Institute (ASI)
2 Jennifer Street, Suite 150
Irvine, CA 92718
☎ 714-727-3727 or 800-887-2887
FAX 714-727-4216

The ASI is a non-profit division of the Specialty Vehicle Institute of America to implement and expand national programs of all ATV safety and education. The primary goal of the ASI is to promote the safe and responsible use of ATVs, thereby reducing accidents and injuries that may result from the improper operation of ATVs by the rider. A copy of the "State All-Terrain Vehicle Requirements" and the booklet, "Parents, Youngsters, and ATVs" is provided in the packet.

Wisconsin Dept. of Natural Resources
P. O. Box 7921
Madison, WI 53707-7921
☎ 608-266-3244 Fax 608-266-3696

"Off-Road Adventure" is a videotape produced by the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources for the Bureau of Law Enforcement. The video features young people talking with young people about such topics as trail etiquette, proper ATV handling, protective equipment, and vehicle maintenance. Copies are available of this non-copyrighted safety video.

Your state off-road vehicle specialist

Your off-road vehicle safety/training specialist may have videos, curricula, and other materials available for your use. Please note that state regulations vary considerably and materials offered may not be consistent with safety recommendations in this packet.

Children's Safety Network Rural Center
Marshfield, WI 54449